Mr. Bhaskar, the Janajagruthi Project Officer from the Dharwad Regional Office, attended as the resource person. He explained in detail how students fall prey to bad habits, the crimes associated with them, and their consequences. He noted that gutka, cigarettes, and narcotic substances contain harmful chemicals, and explained how consuming them leads to addiction, as well as the resulting damage to health and family life. Emphasizing that student life is extremely precious, he highlighted the negative impacts that falling victim to bad habits can have on one's future. The presidential address for the event was delivered by Prof. K. S. Melmalagi, Head of the History department, SJMV Mahanth college Dharwad.
