BEST PRACTICE – 1

Title of the Practice: MORAL / ETHICAL EDUCATION

Goal:

To inculcate moral and ethical values in the present youth as it is the need of the hour of the society.

The Context:

Rapid increase of terrorist activities, sexual abuse, violence, disintegration of human values, corruption, money mindedness so on and so forth are the evil practices of the present society, necessitates the inculcation of value based education. To curb and eradicate such negative forces and bring strong positive attitudes among the youth, the institution conducts classes for Vachana Kammata examination.

The Practice:

Vachana is a sort sacred poem. Crores of vachanas are written by poet saints of 12th century (Basaveshwara, Akkamahadevi, Allamaprabhu, Channabasaveshwara and others). Vachanas emit spiritual / human / moral values in the lives of people. To enable the students to study and inculcate and bring into practice these values in their life, the Patron President of our Vidyapeetha His Holiness Dr. Shri. Shivamurthy Murugha Saranaru conducts these examinations in all the degree colleges of Karnataka.

The syllabus for all the three years is given in the form of three books and examination by name.

Class	Name of Exam	Name of Text book
B.A.-I	Anubhava	Arivina Andolana
B.A.-II	Anubhuti	Nirmiti
B.A.-III	Anand	Nirvachana

The syllabus of the course is given at the time of admission to each of the students of the institution and the classes are conducted twice in a month. The objectives of the lectures given in the classes are defined to specify the learner, the learning outcomes. During the lecture, discussion and questioning is encouraged.

Problems encountered and resources required:

In the beginning due to the lack of awareness the strength of the students was much less in number. After the advice and motivation during the visit of His Holiness Dr.Shri. Shivamurthy Murugha Sharanaru and his special camps which focused on the importance and relevance of vachanas in our day to day life, students were much impressed and began taking interest in these classes. To run this value based course, management is actively involved in providing financial support.

Notes:

The commencement of the classes is brought to the notice of the students. Twice a month classes are conducted in the seminar hall class-wise.   Under the able coordinatorship of Dr.Pushpa Basanagoudar and with the support of dedicated teaching and non-teaching staff of the college, the classes and the examinations are conducted effectively. Winners are felicitated both in Sharana Samskriti Utsava, Chitradurga and Annual Social Gathering of our college. The Principal with his dynamic leadership, constant guidance and support gives a prominent shape to this Vachana Kammata examination.

BEST PRACTICES-02
Title of the Practice: INTRODUCTION OF DRESS CODE
Goal:

Introduction of "Dress Code" is helpful in bringing uniformity, socio-economic equality and indiscrimination among the students. As our institution is co-education, the authorities realised the necessity of introducing dress code and it has become one of the best practices in the campus.

The Context:

In the beginning, institution faced certain difficulties in introducing uniform. Due to economical burden, some students were not in favour of accepting this idea of discipline. Some percentage of students were keenly interested to come in colour dress so that they can enjoy their student life. But the institution successfully convinced the students. Every week (i.e., Wednesday) colour dress is permitted. Colour dress is permitted on birthdays.

The Practice:

The introduction of dress code is future oriented. As the students are studying in UG courses, after completion of their course, most of them would go for PG courses and join different professional courses. So dress code is considered very important in any of the professional courses. A fine formal attire is must so their wearing formals as uniform here would make it easy for them to continue the practice in future in their profession. In higher education and professional courses, it is already made mandatory for the students. Hence, students wearing uniform at graduate level is going to be a preparation for their tomorrow.

Evidence of success:

Introduction of dress code, the institution has seen drastic change. Now students come to college in uniform without fail. It is undoubtedly a benchmark comparing with the past or the time before the introduction of dress code. It indicates the discipline in the campus. No discrimination of any sort has been encountered in the campus ever since it has been introduced in the campus. It has put an end to many of ill activities. It is also used as an anti provoking tool among the students. If outsiders enter the campus, they are easily caught and immediate action can be taken. In this way, this practice has become a institutional benchmark.

Problems encountered and resources required:
The students coming from rural and poor background, economic was the big problem. To help all the students, institution invited wholesale cloth merchant and asked to provide good quality cloth at a nominal price.
